Introduction

WHAT ?

What we do

Phoenix Shield designs and develops premium protection solutions for trading cards, sealed products, and graded cards (PCA, PSA).

Our product line covers the entire collector and player ecosystem: technical sleeves, 100% UV-blocking toploaders, 99% UV-blocking acrylic protectors, specialized albums, secure cases, and point-of-sale merchandising solutions.

Each product is designed to protect, enhance, and organize a collection over time.

WHO ?

Who are our products designed for ?

For discerning collectors who want to preserve the value of their cards. For competitive players seeking reliability and durability. For specialized professionals who want to offer a consistent, high-quality, and distinctive product line.

Phoenix Shield is used by advanced collectors, traders, and specialty stores seeking a clearly premium positioning.

Introduction

WHY ?

Why Phoenix Shield

Because protecting a card isn't just about preventing scratches. It's about preserving its integrity, value, and appearance over the long term.

Phoenix Shield stands out for:
- High UV protection (up to 100% depending on the line)
- Precise sizing tailored to each format
- Full compatibility across different product categories
- A confident and consistent premium positioning

Our goal is to offer the most affordable product, as well as the most reliable and consistent over time.

HOW ?

Our approach

Every Phoenix Shield product is developed according to three core principles:

1. Dimensional precision: A perfect fit for every type of card or sealed product.

2. Long-lasting protection: Materials selected for their durability, transparency, and stability.

3. Product line consistency: A comprehensive ecosystem that allows collectors and professionals to meet all their needs under a single brand.

WHERE ?

Presence & distribution

Phoenix Shield is distributed through specialized partners, stores dedicated to trading cards, and industry professionals.

The brand also participates in specialized events and trade shows, further cementing its presence in the world of trading card games and collecting.
